

Branch: Driving and services in road transport

Code: DRSERT

Option: Driving and services in road transport

Level : BEP

Prerequisites : BEPC and/or CAP

Opportunities:

In freight transport companies.

Description

To deliver goods by transporting them from production sites to users with vehicles of more than 3.5 tonnes. This activity is very diversified and takes place in all areas of industry and commerce.

The road driver is at the service of a client, and is responsible for loading products, transporting them and unloading them in compliance with regulations, administrative and customs formalities and deadlines.

Quality and competences :

The pupils who intend to take this BEP have the taste and the physical capacities to drive heavy weights. A great sense of responsibility and an ability to endure great moments of loneliness are also necessary. They must also be 16 years old at the start of the training.

